Kelley Oberreit Custom Jewelry Now Available Online

Sunriver, OR (April 7, 2006)—If you are looking for one-of-a-kind jewelry designs with flair, you can now find them with ease in this new online jewelry store. A professional goldsmith, Kelley Oberreit designs fine jewelry that is available only through galleries but also designs unique custom jewelry and beaded gemstone jewelry that is both fun and affordable. These pieces and other fashion jewelry items are now available in her online jewelry store.

“It is a pleasure to work with Kelley. Her pieces are beautiful and unusual, and she has a great sense of design. In creating one-of-a-kind custom pieces, Kelley listened intently to my rough ideas and then, with great attention to detail, produced works of art. My friends are jealous of my fabulous, unique bling!” expresses Hilary Westrom from Las Vegas, NV.

Kelley designs each piece so that you feel comfortable wearing your jewelry anywhere—dropping the kids off at school, attending an important business meeting, or enjoying an elegant dinner. Her designs are versatile yet elegant. With a background in fine art and design coupled with her formal training from Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts in San Francisco, Kelley Oberreit designs are truly one-of-a-kind pieces handcrafted with precision, intrigue, and care. Each month the boutique features new fashion jewelry designs that are available to just one lucky shopper.

Gift certificates are available and make online purchasing a snap! Remember, Mother’s Day is just around the corner. Give that special woman in your life a gift to treasure. With earrings starting at $18, high quality custom jewelry is affordable at Kelley Oberreit’s online jewelry store. For individuals that relish wearing unique bracelets,
